Crossville will meet at the chapel this evening at 7:30.

The annual sale of pews at St. John's Episcopal church will be held on Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

The indications in Maine are now that there will be a larger increase of sweet crops planted for the factory this year than there has been for several seasons.

The Y. P. C. U. connected with the Universal church of Oldtown, will visit the Bangor society Sunday night and a special electric car will be engaged to have it at 6:15 o'clock.

The members of the choir and others at St. John's Catholic church have formed a musical club and engaged Mr.

Charles J. Marshall to direct it. A meeting will soon be held for the election of officers, etc.

The municipal officers met Friday forenoon to consider Catherine Ma-nouey to the Isaacine Asylum. She was taken to the Almshouse yesterday to pass the night and will be taken to Augusta to day.

Ray Johnson, of Bangorville, has just completed a railroad bicycle, upon which he has been working for the past two months. It has many improvements over those now in use and a patent has been applied for.

The logs owned by Alfred N. Estes, of

In many a Maine neighborhood the chopping bee is in order these fine spring days. Many a poor farmer who "has plowed hard," and by sickness or accident finds himself, after a long winter, behind in his work, short in cash account and in the rear of the whole procession, is by these neighborly gatherings set on his feet once more.

HE CAUGHT AT A STRAW.

And found a Bulwark of Strength and Safety.

13 deans, of the freight department of the Boston & Maine Railroad at Portsmouth, know what it is to suffer from hunger with food within reach, which he could eat, but not digest. He lives at 39 Daniel Street, and tells his experience in the following words:

"I am 6 years old I began to be troubled with indigestion, which is as light as the worse instead of being bad. I found it hard to keep any food down. Everything I ate caused pain and distress, but it did not last long.

After a great many different things, but they failed to cure me, and the doctor said I was ready to eat my straw offering the best of results. Then I tried Puritana, and was only relieved by a short time

and of my indigestion, but I was not relieved by it for a long time.

It cost me a dozen different things, but they failed to cure me,
